HARDING COLLEGE, SEARCY, ARKANSAS NOVEMBER 2, 1937

NUMBER 6

CAPACITY CROWD GREET'S OPENING OF NEW LYCEUM

'Modern Wonders of Electricity' Proves Interesting

A capacity crowd greeted the first number of the Harding Lyceum course last night at the college auditorium. The presentation, "Modern Wonders of Electricity," was conducted by Lewis Hoskins, an outstanding lecturer on scientific subjects.

The program consisted of many outstanding contributions of recent scientific developments such as the Photo Burglar Alarms, Electric Eye, Radio Beam, Dancing Electrons, Sound That Can Be Seen, Light That Can Be Heard, Inverted Speech, Stroboscope, etc.

Hoskins presented a popular technical demonstration of these ultra-modern developments in the field of electricity. A whole stage full of amazing electrical apparatus was used by the lecturer. It was presented within the understanding of the youngest pupils, and challenging enough to interest the most advanced students in the field.

Practically all the seats were reserved before last night and the auditorium was packed with college students and citizens of Searcy.

This is the first in the new series of the Lyceum Course which has been planned for the year. Under the new arrangement not only the dramatic workers are taking part but also the Music Department and the Science Department.

Judging from the response made by the audience and from statements made by visitors, officials stated that the scientific lecture has proven itself to be very successful.

The next number to be presented will be under the direction of the Music Department. It is scheduled for November 18.

MID-TERM EXAMINATIONS

Preparations are now being made for mid-term examinations which of this week.

It was learned today that classes will not have two hour periods for the tests but will meet on regular schedule.

HONEST JIM SAYS:

When I hear of the big powers getting together for the cause of peace—well it makes me want to give the ole horse laugh.

Recently a conference was held for the said purpose of keeping each other's noses out of Spain, and cleaning up the noses already there. While the playhouse was in session, Italy had the nerve to say that she wanted peace. Hitler also pledged Germany to peace. Then, both of these guys urge the German and Italian women to have more children, which makes more soldiers—they are bankrupting their nations to build up war machines—demanding more colonies and still they want peace for the U. S. A.—including the Republicans. Let Hitler and Mussolini thumb their noses at who they please, just so they don't turn them in the direction of Arkansas and her 47 sisters.

Remember the slogan: "One Southerner can whip three Yankees." Now that we're all Yankees, the world had better leave us alone. We ain't kidding when we say we want peace.

Court Kangaroo Becomes Effective In Ironing Out Disorderly Conduct

During the absence of Dr. Benson, Dr. Armstrong, and Dr. Sears, boys of Godden Hall decided that they could not tolerate outlandishness of any of their fellow students. Night before last all in the dormitory were placed under martial law by order of the court supreme, Kangaroo.

Halloween night, when the witches were riding broomsticks and the boys riding the boiler room whistle, the lights suddenly went out. Wilbur Banks and Willene Morris, who must have heard the rumor that the light wires were going to be cut, became overconfident. The result was visible (very visible) when the lights suddenly came back on.

This incident aroused the better natures of the young men and is was called to the attention of the hastily organized but VERY effective Kangaroo court. The session opened in Bill Landrum's room which was filled to overflowing. Among those present were men of unimpeachable character and long ecclesiastical lines such as Bill Medearis, Robert Vann, Fouts Vaughn, Foster Thompson, Curt Peters, Ray Salners, etc.

Herschel Watts was elected judge, Roy Roe, sheriff, Swaggerty, Attorney for the Defense, and James E. McDaniel, Prosecuting Attorney. For the jury, there was Foreman Camp, assisted by Behel, and Rice. Court convened at 9:15 and adjourned at 11:55.

Sheriff Roe brought in the defendants, Banks, and charges were filed against him. He pleaded not guilty. Various legal procedures, much hallying back and forth, and cross-questioning followed.

Despite many protestations of the innocence on the part of the accused and many objections by the Attorney for the Defense (which were tersely overruled), Fat McCaleb testified that "it didn't look like whispering to me."

Joe Sellers, first witness for the defense, stated that the pair were just looking at each other when

CHORUS HOLDING EXTRA MEETINGS TO FINISH WORK

Doing Extra Work to Perfect Program By November 18

In preparation for the second lyceum number of the year, which comes on November 18, the A Capella Choir has been holding special rehearsals to perfect the program.

Miss Albright, the director of the group, promises as fine a program as is possible to get ready in so short a time as has been allotted. She expects to have appearing jointly with the choir, the Croatian Girls' Orchestra, of Chicago, and the Harding College orchestra.

Consisting largely of well-known popular classics, the concert will become an annual event, being known hereafter as the "Pop Concert" of the season.

The gowns selected by the group are of black material trimmed in a thin gold stripe around the neck piece, in keeping with the colors of the school. They will arrive in time for the lyceum concert and for the three concerts to be given during the week of November 15-20 in various parts of the state.

No Definite Report On Financial Drive

No word has yet been received from Dr. Benson as to the outcome of the financial campaign in the North. However, it was learned today that he has been working with friends constantly since he has been there.

Besides working in New York City, Dr. Benson has been in Delaware for visits with financiers there.

Dr. Benson plans to be back on the campus in about three weeks.

Teachers to Attend State Meet This Week

Several members of the faculty are now making plans to attend the Arkansas State Teachers meeting in Little Rock, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Although all of those who are planning to attend have not yet spoken to Dr. L. C. Sears about leaving, he stated that he expected a large percent of the faculty to go.

Those who go will make arrangements for some one to meet their classes so that no time will be lost by the students, Dr. Sears said.

At first plans were made for dismissing school for the meeting but this arrangement failed to develop.

Elliott-Tyler Wedding.

Miss Frances Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Elliott of Pine Bluff, was married to Granville W. Tyler of Bon Aqua, Tennessee, at the home of the bride at Pine Bluff Tuesday morning, October 26, at 9 o'clock. Dr. L. C. Sears, of Harding College, performed the ceremony.

Preceding the entrance of the bridal party, Fletcher Floyd sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Miss Tommie Jean Davis. Miss Davis also played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" for the processional, and wedding march by Mendelssohn for the recessional. Leonard Tyler, brother of the bridegroom was best man, and Miss Avanelle Elliott, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

The bride wore a costume suit of duck blue with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of orchids.

The altar was banked with palms and ferns. Yellow chrysanthemums decorated the room, which was lighted with tall blue tapers.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short wedding trip to different points in Tennessee, after which they went to Russellville, Alabama, where they will make their home.

Only relatives and close friends attended the ceremony. Both the bride and bridegroom are members of the 1937 graduating class of Harding.

Choate-Leasure Wedding.

Miss Dean Choate was married to Elbert Leasure, Tuesday, October 28, in Little Rock. They were attended by Miss Nannie Belle Mattox and Leon Van Patten.

The couple took a short wedding

ADELPHIAN CLUB ENTERTAINS ALL WITH KID PARTY

Vick and Thomann Win
Awards In Costume
Contest

All Harding girls and their dates were entertained at a Halloween Kid Party in the college dining hall, by the Adelpian Club last Saturday night.

The evening was spent in playing kiddish games and in singing songs. As the couples entered the hall, Miss Lois Albright played nursery rhyme tunes. Martha Williams and Valda Montgomery presented all with lollypops.

Mrs. J. D. Allen and Mrs. Zelma Lawyer judged the costume contest. Mercedes Vick and Frank Thoman, who were dressed as the little boy and girl ready for church, received the awards.

Madame Elizabeth Vitale, sponsor of the club, asked for six volunteers to drink Coca-Colas through apples. Houston Hopper and Mildred Tyler were winners.

Also a contest of jumping the rope was held. Dorothy Bixler and Robert Oliver excelled in this game.

Later in the evening, Madame Vitale presented Mrs. O. M. Coleman as Madame Corrina, the gypsy fortune-teller.

Roasted peanuts and apples were served throughout the evening by Willie May Reese, Martha Williams, L. Vonne Smith, and Leola Mock.

BAND ORGANIZED FOR YEAR'S WORK

Will Accompany Pep
Squad to All Basketball Games

A pep band is being organized to accompany the Pep Squad during the basketball season, both in home games and on the trips. Prospects at the first meeting were very favorable for a successful year.

The band is not a musical organization capable of any sort of concert work due to the fact that only a few Harding students play wind instruments. Several students have expressed their desire and willingness to play various instruments but at present Harding College fails to own instruments sufficient to the demand.

Miss Lois Albright, director of the School of Music, announced recently that it is one of her aims to develop some sort of fund to secure these instruments.

Officers Are Chosen For Oklahoma Club

Raymond Vaughn was elected president of the Oklahoma Club at its first meeting which was held last Tuesday night in the high school study hall.

Other officers chosen were: Lowe Hogan, vice-president, and T. Rose Terry, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Louise Terry was chosen as sponsor for the group.

It was announced that meetings will be held in the high school study hall at 1 o'clock on every other Tuesday. Vaughn requested that all Oklahoma students be present at these meetings and take an active part in club activities.

TEXAS PAPER FOR LIBRARY

The Texas club has made plans to subscribe for the Dallas Morning News for the library.

Pictures for Annual to Be Made This Week

O. N. Hogue, vice-president of the Hogue and Fausett Photography Company of Little Rock, will be here November 4 and 5 to make the individual pictures which will be made in the publication office.

A survey, directed by Clifford Cronin, editor of the Petit Jean, was taken to find when students have vacant periods so that a schedule can be prepared for the work.

Everyone is requested to be ready to have his picture made at the specified time so that the work on the Petit Jean will move along as rapidly as possible.

FOURTEEN GIRLS PASS RED CROSS SWIMMING TEST

Outstanding Progress Is Made By Many

A surprising number of girls who could not swim when they entered the class are now able to swim the length of the pool unassisted. These girls are Beatrice Sucker, Stella Wilson, Genevieve Blackburn, Ollie Cope, Margaret Overton, Marjorie Overton, Mae Sheele, Neva Mae Helton, Helen Cleek, Opaline Turner, Laurilla Whitten, Florence Morris, Estelle Maddox, Lucille Kochler, and Nadine Tompson.

The class was accompanied by their sponsor, Dr. Herbert Heck-enbleikner, and Miss Maurine Rhodes.

Undeclared Teams Tie Up
In Finals of the

The series to decide the school champions in the intramural basketball tournament will commence tonight at 7:30 in the gymnasium.

This two out of three games series will be played between Bill Landrum's team and Clifford Cronin's team. Both groups were undefeated in the preliminary rounds of the tournament. Cronin's players are Mack Greenway, Dan Spencer, Jack Bomar, Buck Harris, R. T. Clark, Jimmy Smith and Ralph Bell. Landrum's players are James Harris, Curtis Peters, Julian Dewberry, L. E. Pryor and Dumas.

The proceeds of the series will go to buy the medals which are to be given to the winners in the softball tournament and the winners of the tennis tournament, as well as the winners in basketball. These medals will be fobs to put on a watch chain. They are the shape of a horse's head, this will be gold, with a black "H" inscribed on it. Admission will be ten cents per person.

Varsity lettermen in basketball were not permitted to play in this tournament, because Coach Berryhill wanted the students who do not go out for basketball to be allowed to play.

For these games Elwin Roe is acting referee, Coach Berryhill, scorekeeper, and Raymond Vaughn, time keeper.

Freshmen Class Visits Doniphan

Doniphan Lake was visited by the freshmen class yesterday for their first outing of the year. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Berryhill, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cope chaperoned the group.

Homer Utley, who has been working with a congregation in Detroit invited Dr. Armstrong for the meeting. Both Mr. and Mrs. Utley are former students of Harding College.

Dr. Armstrong plans to be away about two weeks.

Cheer Leaders Picked To Serve Pep Squad

Following a series of try-outs, Sidney Hooper, Bill Stokes, Marjorie Farley, and Ruthel Hardie were selected as cheer leaders by the Pep Squad.

Already the group shows marked improvement on yells, according to reports. Practice on formations will begin soon. New Uniforms have been ordered.

The Spirit and the Letter

We've all heard the expression, "He obeyed the letter, if not the spirit, of the law." Perhaps a few of us have even puzzled over it. It is a very apt expression, however, and can be applied to many things other than legal statutes.

For every ruling that is made in all kinds of civilized society there is a reason. Some person, or group of people, in that society has made the rule necessary. The regulation is made for the protection of the majority; the spirit of the law is that underlying reason. Few rules are made without considering what is best for the entire organization concerned. If one adheres to a rule because he believes that it was framed in the proper spirit and wishes to benefit the group by that adherence, then the effectiveness of all rules would be increased many fold.

The usual attitude, however, is to take the law literally. To consider only the specific wording which has been used in framing the regulation. If an evasion can be made which does not actually violate the "letter" itself, then the evader considers that he is still "within the law."

This practice is not a commendable one as it does not show the proper co-operative spirit. A practical application of this text can be made right here in our own school. Students might find loopholes in many of the regulations which have been made to govern our particular society. But it is the student who is not looking for loopholes, the student who is interested in finding out WHY the rule was made, and who obeys it because he has the interest of the school and the majority of its membership at heart, who is the valuable member of our collegiate community.

The sooner this attitude is adopted by the entire student body the sooner written rules will become unnecessary and useless. To obey the spirit that lies behind our regulations as well as the wording itself should become the conscious effort of all who wish to benefit from our association together.

Concerning All Night Crams

Educational authorities may tell you not to cram for examinations, but if you have wasted time these first six weeks and do not want to see a grade entirely too low recorded by your name we would suggest that cramming is not only permissible but is commendable.

Many people do not have the ability to absorb in a night what they were exposed to for several weeks but still there are many who can size up a teacher's technique and know enough of his type of questions to tally up a good grade on a night's notice.

Of course, this is not the best method, and we realize that for lasting good a course must be absorbed gradually. However, we feel no embarrassment in recommending all night cramming. It may mean the difference between an "F" and a "C" on six weeks' exams.

To Coach "Pinky" Berryhill

Much has been said privately but little or nothing has yet, publicly, voiced the general opinion of those living in Godden Hall toward "Pinky" Berryhill as dormitory manager.

To our knowledge, there has been no one who has denied receiving a square deal in any dealings with him. All we have heard is praise and appreciation of his methods of management.

Mr. Berryhill, we take this opportunity to tell you that you have, thus far, managed the dormitory more efficiently, and with less friction, than we have seen previously in our stay at Harding.

So far, it seems that all are co-operating in expressing their appreciation by observing the simple restrictions placed upon them, and we believe that this will continue.

There is no extent to the power of fairness and congeniality in managing people. We appreciate the fact that Mr. Berryhill excels in both of these qualities.

WHOOZINIT

By P. McGill

Flash: Hugo, Oklahoma—Well, Mary Nell, here you are completely exposed. Boy, what would George do if he knew that Sam Bell (well acquainted with readers of Whoozinit in the past) quit a football game to go to town with you. Think of those boys having to play without a coach. Greetings Sam. Sounds like you are the same ole guy. We'll get the details Thanksgiving . . . Sammie Sue, what's this I hear about pithy frappe fruit? . . . Jack Bomar reports that this last week end he had his first date at Harding. Girls, it looks like he has finally weakened under the strain. This is his second year . . . "Life Goes to a Party" and P. McGill goes to a Circus. Bill Medearis was seen walking into Madame I. Cantell's booth. The sign over the door said "Advice about love." Bill says she was surprisingly accurate. She even told him if he was going to—I mean whom he was going to marry. However, he said that at present he had no statement for the press concerning the matter. Other places that Bill visited are not open for publication, he says . . . "Booie," we hear that you are becoming a letter-writing expert . . . Several have expressed their appreciation of the way "Bony" Beth Byler skips the rope . . . Flash. Have you heard about Dr. Sears going up on second at the Armstrong home and forgetting to say "man on second" . . . Speaking of the Sears family, Kern was recently heard to say "if any of you girls love me please come tell me about it" . . . Robert Brown, when questioned about a certain matter said "Aw, that was just in fun." Bernice maybe you had better look into that . . . Avanelle Elliott and Wallace Beasley stopped on the way back from the library directly in Mrs. Lawyer's path. Avanelle said, "Shucks, I always get caught" . . . Flash—Ralph Bell announces that he is just afore making his debut, if you get what I mean . . . Unique thoughts for Halloween night: Swinging in the fish pond—taking a flying leap at the library—bathing in whistling steam—having courtin' plans disrupted because the lights didn't stay off long enough (quite)—hunting valve stems by star light . . . Mercy dese we decided to have mercy on dese events of the past week (no charges) . . . Mary Elizabeth what were you doing leading a bunch of girls out of the boys' building Sunday? I can't understand that nearly so well as I could if you were leading them in . . . Why Wilbur Banks, your actions were bad enough but the idea of offering bribery. Tsh, tsh, you should learn to "break" quicker.

SPECTRUM

Brown leaves are drifting in the lily pool. Darkness comes on earlier. Sunset is a golden blaze of glory and then night falls. This is the last act of the drama of summer and fall. Soon winter will claim the stage and all this beauty will be past.

Intramural sports have reached new heights this fall at Harding, and Coach Berryhill certainly deserves commendation. More students are engaging in athletics than ever before.

Across the miles we send greetings to George Pepperdine College. Reading their paper, I was inspired by the good spirits, the evident satisfaction, the pleasant co-operative feeling that must exist between these "charter students" and the administration. George Pepperdine College is opening a new field of Christian education, and we are proud to be a sister institution.

There is a peace that comes sometimes when least expected. Even in a crowded room I have felt remote and extremely self-sufficient. Crowds can bring neither happiness nor contentment. These things must come from within.

Searcy is a grand town. The longer I'm here the better I like it. It is so alive, so co-operative, so interested and interesting. There are a number of beautiful houses, old and new, but to me the most beautiful thing is the trees, especially now that autumn is here. The tulip tree leaves are a pale mellow gold; the silver maples are gold and faintly red; the magnolias shine dark green, as if they had been waxed and polished; the oaks are red and brown, with occasional branches of yellow; an everywhere red maples are living up to their name—scarlet leaves challenge and call to the passer that summer is gone and that a season infinitely gayer, infinitely better, infinitely more colorful is here.

Campus sounds at night:

The chorus is singing in the auditorium . . . a train on the branch line to the south of the campus clanks and chugs its way . . . a girl clatters down the hall in wooden-heeled bed-room slippers . . . a boy goes past outside whistling a current favorite . . . a car door slams . . . someone rings the speaking tube bell . . . a boy calls to someone . . . a bunch of girls congratulate and the subsequent sound is "as the rushing of a mighty wind" . . . check-up bell rings.

BETWEEN SCENES

Twenty Century-Fox Studios, of Hollywood, is sending one of their scouts to see "Lady of Letters" to be presented by the Trojan Theatre Guild of Little Rock Junior College. Wonder why he didn't pick Harding? More than apt it was due to lack of information in regard to the outstanding dramatic group in the state of Arkansas. This column is not saying that the Trojan Theatre Guild is not worthy of a scout's time and attention. Quite on the contrary. But it seems that a well posted scout would know the winner of the state Little Theatre tournament for the past two years! The writer has already informed the studio of this fact and it may be that a movie scout will be in the audience when the curtain goes up for the first act of "Seventeen."

FLASH!... The winner of last year's Workshop Tournament was "Getting Acquainted With Madge." This has not been announced because the judges were unaware of the outcome of the tournament. The last play was not presented on account of trouble within the cast. The best actor and actress will be announced as soon as the information can be gathered from the judges.

Dick Powell, Arkansas' favorite son, is one guy who returns favors to whomsoever favors him. In September, 1935 Governor Futrell declared a full holiday for his homecoming. In return he has given Arkansas more publicity than any other 20 men. In "The Singing Marine" he gave his home state plenty of notice. In "Shipmates Forever" the U. S. S. Arkansas was used as the setting in many of the important scenes of the picture. Plenty of people have seen these pictures too. Powell is the fourth most popular male in the movie business. Clark Gable, Robert Taylor and Gary Cooper are the only men able to be greater box office attractions and they're not far ahead.

Future Missionaries Entertained.

A group of 17 "future foreign missionaries" was entertained by W. L. Brown and family at their home last Friday night.

Mr. Brown entertained the guests with stories of his own experiences in the African mission field. He also sang several songs in the African tribal language.

Tea and cakes were served in English style.

Adelphian Kid Party.

"All were children again" last Friday night at the Adelphian Club's kid party for all Harding girls and their escorts. Masks were worn by all until after the judging for the "kiddishest" boy and girl. The prizes went to Mercedes Vick and Frank Thomann.

The house was decorated with jack-o-lanterns, corn stalks, black cats, and many other Halloween symbols. Such games as ring-around-the-roses, and farmer's-in-the-dell were played.

All-day suckers, parched peanuts, and apples were given the "kids" during the evening.

Ko Jo Kia's Entertain.

Misses Alice Ann and Tommy Jean Davis and T. Rose Terry entertained the Ko Jo Kia's and their escorts Saturday night with a Halloween supper in the men's parlor.

The table was covered with a black and white cover, with jack-o-lantern centerpiece and white tomb stones for place cards.

The refreshments consisted of sandwiches, ginger bread, pop corn balls, and coffee.

COURT KANGAROO

Jim's technicalities, coupled with his razor tongue, soon had him admitting that he was a liar, and wound up by saying that he wasn't even in the dining hall.

A gallant fight (without foundation) was put up by Swaggerty for the defense but it amounted to nothing against the odds and eloquence on the prosecution.

Judge Watts charged the jury, which departed and returned immediately with a verdict of guilty. Amid profound silence, the Judge pronounced the sentence.

Following this, Sellers was indicted and charged with perjury; Bill Craig was indicted on a charge of falsifying. All three received the sentence of wallowing in the fish pond. Court adjourned and reconvened on the brink of pool, where, amid howls of glee from spectators, the culprits served their sentences.

Much to their embarrassment, the girls watched from the balcony.

Poetry Club Discusses Program for the Year

In a Poetry Club meeting held last week plans for the work of the year were discussed.

It was decided that as soon as all new members were taken into the club, work would be started toward compiling the second book of Harding Undergraduate Verse. All members expressed a desire to increase the size of the book this year and to have it in a nicer binding.

The regular meeting time decided upon was Wednesday from 3:30

Bro. Rhodes May Take New Archery Course

Boys, do you realize that the girls in Archery can hit the bull's eye! They are next planning to give cupid a few lessons and equip him with a large quiver of arrows and designate the hearts they want pierced.

Apparently Prof. Rhodes is curious, frightened, or interested. Anyway, for some reason he visited the archery class. Elizabeth Farris, a new Dianna, drew the bow with the skill of Will Tell and penetrated the central dot. Bro. Rhodes was startled (so was Elizabeth) but at any rate Bro. Rhodes was so entranced with the art that he requested the pleasure of being allowed to attend the class more often.

Reports are that he is going to take up the bow and arrow art so that he might seek revenge on the Indians who got his scalp.

till 4:30 in the afternoon. The club will meet only once every two weeks but the plans are to make this meeting a longer session to cover as much territory in the one meeting as the two shorter meetings have been covering.

HEUER'S SHOE STORECLUB PRESIDENTS ADOPT NEW PLAN

Different Method Chosen For Inviting New Members

Presidents of all boys' social clubs met last night to discuss plans for taking in new members and to set a date for this to be done.

Clifford Cronin represented the T. N. T.'s, Sam Peebles, the Koinonias; Alf Johnson, the Cavaliers, Carol Cannon, the Lambda Sigmas, and Wallace Beasley, the Sub-T's.

At the meeting a general discussion was held concerning the arrangements used in the past for taking pledges to the clubs and new plans were submitted for consideration.

The plan adopted was that of sending the prospective pledges written invitations through the post office. It was decided that one week from today all club presidents would meet in the Bison office immediately after chapel and take the invitations to the post office together.

No club meetings for the purpose of accepting pledges will be held until after chorus practice that night.

Those at the discussion decided that this new method would eliminate the "high pressure" put upon prospective pledges by club members who might try to persuade boys to come to their club in preference to some other club that also extended an invitation to them.

CRONIN, LANDRUM TO MATCH TEAMS IN 3 DAY SERIES

Intramural Record for Past Week Reviewed
By Writer

The intramural basketball tournament was narrowed down to two teams last week. Cronin's team and Landrum's team were the winners and will play in the series this week to decide the school champions.

In the last round, Cronin's team defeated the team managed by Hubert Flynt, 37 to 13. At the end of the first half, Cronin's team was leading by the score of 8 to 5. The second half was played much faster and more scoring was done. High scoring honors went to Greenway who tallied 10 points. Harris, Bell and Cronin tied for second place with seven points each. For the opposing team, Robertson was high point man with six points. Cronin was outstanding on the floor in defense.

Landrum's team defeated Miller's players in the other final round game by the score, 20 to 8. The first half was played slowly with very few scores. Miller's team failed to make a score in this half, but, in the second half, they were able to do some scoring. Curtis Peters, freshman from Oklahoma, lead the scoring with 10 points. He also played good defensive game of ball. Miller was outstanding for his team.

Each team had to win two games before qualifying for the series and this meant that they would have to be undefeated. Landrum's team won from Herman West's team by the score, 39 to 13. The game was smoothly played with some good passing and shooting shown. Bill Bell's team was beaten by Cronin's team by a close score, 21 to 20. This was probably the best game of the tournament. Cronin's team was in the lead throughout the game, but the opposition rallied in the last minutes and almost tied the score. B. Bell, Clark and Greenway tied for scoring honors with nine points each.

12 TO 0 VICTORY FOR SEARCY LIONS

Morrilton Red Devils Hold
Fast Until Last Quarter

Coach Trimble's Searcy Lions defeated the Morrilton Red Devils last Thursday night on the local field by the score of 12 to 0.

Captain Evans was responsible for both touchdowns, going through the line for the first score, and passing to Garrison for the second. Morrilton threatened the Lions' goal twice, but was not able to push over a touchdown.

For three quarters, the game was evenly played with neither team doing any scoring. In the final period, the Lions opened up and pushed over two touchdowns. The first score came after a 65 yard drive. Walker was outstanding in this drive, but was removed from the game on account of injuries, before the touchdown was made by Evans. The second touchdown was made when Morrilton punted out of bounds on their own 39 yard line, and Evans passed to Garrison, right end, for the touchdown.

Morrilton threatened in the third quarter when McReynolds passed to Charten for 35 yards. The Red Devils threatened again when the Lions fumbled and the Red Devils advanced the ball to the 11 yard line, but the Lions held them for downs and punted out of danger.

SPORTS GAZING

Before a crowd of 5,000 at Russellville last Friday, the last year's football champs, Arkansas State Teachers' College Bears, nosed out Arkansas Tech 13 to 9 to assure their lead again this year in Arkansas college football.

It was a hard fight, and anybody's game until the final gun. The first quarter was scoreless, but in the second, Tech's coach, John Tucker, sent Bridges in to kick a field goal. He was successful and the half ended with Tech leading 3 to 0.

Teachers turned loose after that. Conti, Teacher tackle, blocked a punt and the ball was recovered by a Teacher man on Tech's five yard line. On the third down, a pass to Baldridge gave Teachers their first touchdown. Conti converted and the quarter ended 7 to 3.

Tech came back with a smashing drive that pushed Haver over and gave them a 9 to 7 lead. Teachers, with a 44-yard run and a short pass to Estes, chalked up the winning touchdown.

Tony Lazzeri, second baseman for the world champion Yanks, signed a one year contract as utility player and coach with the Chicago Cubs Friday.

Lazzeri has been with the Yanks 12 years, and although he was receiving a very good salary, appeared quite satisfied with his new position. Terms of the contract were not revealed.

With the present European situation, it looks like the Olympics might be knocked in the head for several years.

BY RALPH BELL

I haven't noticed many rooters at the basketball games yet. I'm sure that you would enjoy the games a whole lot. All the games are interesting and some of them are hard fought and end up in a close score. Also interest should be rising for the regular season.

If you know some athlete back home who is not going to school anywhere this year and you think that he would be interested in coming to Harding, tell Coach Berryhill or some of the athletes, or even me and I will tell the coach. We don't want a bunch of toughs around that won't study, but we do want a good team. Think it over.

There have been some surprising contestants in the tennis tournament. I guess Milton Baker was the biggest surprise to most of us. There were some mighty good matches played. Tennis is a form of intra-mural athletics in which the whole student body takes lively interest.

Football sure is in a grand mix-up in the U. S. this year. There have been a lot of upsets among the big teams, and quite a good many of the teams have been beaten by large scores. It seems like that there has been more last minute scoring and winning the game by these scores than in any other season I can think of. This last second scoring has caused several upsets.

The Archery class is progressing very nicely, and the girls are learning rapidly. However, I guess if we had a few deer running around on the campus, they would still be safe indeed.

Well, the Pep Squad has elected its cheer leaders for the year. (A program of intensive practice of the best yells and cheers will probably come next). I hope so, because the Pep Squad ought to be the loudest thing on the campus.
